

TELE-ROTATION PROGRAM

Build Clinical Skills.
Strengthen Your
Residency Application.

www.mdresearch.us

Admissions@aaymline.org

Program Overview

The Telerotation Program by MD Research is a structured 4-week virtual clinical training designed for International Medical Graduates (IMGs) and medical students aiming to gain U.S.-based clinical exposure. This program focuses on enhancing clinical communication, case presentation, research skills, and documentation, helping you stand out in your residency journey.

Who Should Join?

- International Medical Graduates (IMGs)
- Medical Students
- USMLE Aspirants
- Candidates preparing for U.S. Residency

Program Duration

- 4 Weeks (Structured Training Program)
- Week-by-week guided learning
- Practical exposure + feedback

Program Fee

$650

www.mdresearch.us

Admissions@aaymline.org

Program Structure

Week 1: History Taking & Clinical Examination

- Patient-centered communication (U.S. standards)
- Structured history taking (HPI, PMH, FH, SH, ROS)
- Physical examination techniques
- Virtual patient interaction & feedback

Focus: Clinical Communication & Examination

Exam Relevance: USMLE Step 2 CK

Week 2: Clinical Case Presentation

- Case structure & presentation skills
- Differential diagnosis & management planning
- Bedside manners & professionalism
- Team discussion & collaboration

Focus: Clinical Case Presentation

Exam Relevance: Step 2 CK Clinical

Skills

Week 3: Journal Club & Research Skills

- Critical appraisal of research papers
- Evidence-based medicine approach
- Presentation techniques
- Peer discussion & feedback

Focus: Research & Journal Analysis

Exam Relevance: Research & Clinical Reasoning

Week 4: Patient Notes & Documentation

- SOAP note writing (Subjective, Objective, Assessment, Plan)
- Clinical documentation standards
- Legal & ethical practices
- Real-time note writing with feedback

Focus: Clinical Documentation

Exam Relevance: USMLE Step 2 CK

Patient Notes

Week 4: Patient Notes & Documentation

- SOAP note writing (Subjective, Objective, Assessment, Plan)
- Clinical documentation standards
- Legal & ethical practices
- Real-time note writing with feedback

Focus: Clinical Documentation

Exam Relevance: USMLE Step 2 CK

Patient Notes

Why Choose This Program?

- Structured, step-by-step residency preparation
- Focus on U.S. clinical standards
- Hands-on learning with virtual patients
- Enhances your CV & residency profile
- Designed specifically for IMGs

The program is built to help candidates develop real clinical skills and confidence required for U.S. residency applications

www.mdresearch.us

Admissions@aaymline.org

CONTACT

US

Contact us for more information

www.mdresearch.us

Admissions@aaymline.org

